

Try It Yourself.

"It is of no use to argue the question, Philip, I am neither stubborn nor opinionated. I have simply learned a lesson that will last a lifetime."

"Look here, Jack! you are like some old bachelor who has been jilted by one woman, and goes about declaring all women are false."

"Not at all! my brother Charley died of Bright's disease, brought on by using one of these so-called 'blood purifiers'—the kind you see attractively advertised in every book and corner. It contains iodine of potassium, a drug useful in extreme cases when cautiously given under a doctor's supervision, but death-dealing to all who take it in quantity. If your brother had died under such circumstances, you would hate patent medicines as I do."

"I do dislike the name of that mis-called 'blood purifier,' for I have heard a first-class physician say it is the cause of half the cases of Bright's disease in the country, and it is strange the proprietors have not been prosecuted for selling it. But I was recommending Vinegar Bitters and that does not contain any mineral, narcotic or other hurtful drug."

"Oh, nobody supposes that old woman's remedy will hurt anybody; the question is, will it cure anything? I'd soon think of taking some of my grandmother's herb tea."

"You would be better off, Jack, if you had some of that tea to tone up your system now, instead of taking a glass of brandy to make you sleep one night, and perhaps a bottle of beer the next."

"Is this a temperance lecture, Phil?"

"No, it is a Vinegar Bitters lecture. I've taken the medicine more or less for fifteen years, and look the wild world over, you will not find a healthier man than I am."

"What is all this nonsense about old style and new style Vinegar Bitters; are they different?"

"Yes, the old style looks like coffee with milk in it, the new style looks like coffee without milk. The man who made the old style for twenty years—a practical chemist—made a milder, pleasanter preparation, adding to it here and taking from it there, until he produced, my wife says, the finest medicine ever made. It cured her of constipation, and it cures the children of hives and all the little ailments they ever have. If my wife thinks they have worms, she does them with old style. We always have both kinds in the house, and together, they keep the doctor away."

"And you insist that the proof of the pudding—"

"Is the eating—precisely. Jack, get a bottle of the old style Vinegar Bitters—men, I think, prefer old style usually—try it, and you will then be like an old bachelor who, after railing against women for years, falls in love with a good woman at last. You will say there are good and bad patent medicines, but Vinegar Bitters is the best of the lot."

"All right, Phil, to please you, I'll try it and report results."

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Never Give Up.

In the world, before you
There is much for you to win;
But beforehand you must conquer
Foes without and foes within.
And if now your tasks can rout you.
Then, when life's real battles call,
Will you in their heat and struggle,
Victor stand, or vanquished fall?
Can you hope for bright successes
If you're always failing now?
Do you think defeat will help to
Weave the laurel round your brow?
Just as little straws can tell us
From which side the breeze blow,
To the way you work at trifles
Will your perseverance show.
Never say that fate's against you,
That you cannot conquer luck;
There is no such thing as either—
All depends on work and pluck.
Just you be resolved to conquer,
Never mind how tough the fray:
Put your hands and brain in motion,
And, my boy's you'll gain the day.
CHRISTIAN AT WORK.

DEAR EDITOR:—I see that in the last few EVANGELISTS the Children's Column looked pretty slim. What's the matter? Are the readers getting tired? My question has not been answered yet. It was, whose daughter was Noah? I will answer it Zelophehad. Look for the answer in Num. 11 verse in the last chapter. I guess you thought I meant son and daughter. I go to school now. Miss Rebecca Berry is my teacher. I also attend Sabbath School regular. Our superintendent is Miss Annie Arnold. Now dear readers cheer up. Hurrah for our column as much as you would hurrah for Harrison, Cleveland, Streeter, Fisk or Lockwood. Maybe you are too busy talking politics that you don't write. Don't let the Editor have any room to put advertisements on our page. It is cold and rainy today. We did not have any Sunday School. My father is at Echo, Douglas county, Kan. I will close by asking a couple of questions: 1st. Who was the meekest man that ever lived? 2nd. Who was the inventor of the first musical instrument? 3rd. Who was the first mental founder? 4th. Who was a great hearer and became "The father of all such as dwell in tents and of such as have cattle? Will close with best wishes to all. Adieu.

Your friend and writer,
LOUIS S. BAUMAN.
Montana, Kan., Oct. 21, 1888.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for a long time, I thought I would write you a few lines. I will let the girls and boys know that I did not forget them, although my name does not appear very often in the Children's Column. I still read their letters. I have not been to Sunday School and church today on account of muddy roads. The weather has been very unpleasant this fall. It rains a little nearly every day. I hope it will soon get nice so the boys and girls can go out hunting nuts. For my part I cannot gather any, because we have no trees. I have one little brother four years old. His name is Loyd Emmons. He is full of mischief and fun. He likes to go to Sunday School and put his penny in the basket every Sunday. I have no sisters. Pretty soon the boys and girls will be marching to school and trying to study hard to be well educated.

Traveling the Wrong Road.

Sometimes we go right against our feelings. I remember once I went to Cleveland—I had been eighteen years in Chicago—and when I got to Cleveland I found Lake Erie was on the west side of the city. I was completely turned around. The sun rose in the west and set in the east all the time I was there. If I had gone according to my feelings, I would have got right into Lake Erie and been drowned for it; but I didn't go according to my feelings, I went according to knowledge; knowledge is better than feelings. One time I went across the corner of this country, and I was driving along some roads where I had never been before. When I had got, as I thought, within about five miles of Conway, I began to think, "Now, you are going according to your feelings; hadn't you better have a little knowledge about this thing?" So I reined up at the first house and called "Hello, there!" A man came out, and when I asked him about the road I found that instead of going to Conway, I was going right away from it. First I thought the man was wrong, then I thought, "This man has lived here for years, he knows the way better than I do;" So I turned around and drove my horse right against my feelings. Don't mind your feelings, let feelings take care of themselves; what you want is, to obey. When people begin talking about their feelings, bring them right to Scripture.—D. L. Moody.

Prayers are More Precious.

The Christian Standard and Home Journal tells this: A bright little four-year-old boy in a friend's family was feeling tired as the day drew to a close, and came to his mother that he might say his evening prayer before going to bed. "Wait a little while, Ernie," said his mother; "I am busy writing a letter. When that is done you may say your prayers." The little fellow waited a minute or two very patiently, and then coming back to his mother, said: "Mamma don't you think prayers are more precious than writing letters? God can't wait." Ernie's mother laid aside her letter at the gentle rebuke, and the evening prayer took its right place.—Sel.

Only God can blot out iniquities. A poor creature may soon involve itself in sin and misery, but 'tis beyond the sphere of men or angels' activity to blot out the least sin, or disentangle the soul of the last corruption. The mighty hand of God himself must be put to the blotting out of iniquities.—Culverwell.

The consciousness of having a remedy at hand for croup, pneumonia, sore throat, and sudden colds, is very consoling to a parent. With a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, one feels, in such cases, a sense of security nothing else can give.

Keep a Clean Mouth.

A distinguished author says: "I resolved when I was a child, never to use a word which I could not pronounce before my mother." He kept his resolution, and became a pure-minded, noble, honored gentleman. His rule and example are worthy of imitation.

Boys readily learn a class of low, vulgar words and expressions which are never heard in respectable circles. The utmost care on the part of parents will scarcely prevent it. Of course we cannot think of girls as being so much exposed to this peril. We can not imagine a decent girl using words she would not utter before her father or mother.

Such vulgarity is thought by some boys to be "smart," the "next thing to swearing," and yet "not so wicked;" but it is a habit which leads to profanity, and fills the mind with evil thoughts. It vulgarizes and degrades the soul, and prepares the way for many of the gross and fearful sins which now corrupt society.

Young reader! keep your mouth free from all impurity and your "tongue from evil;" but in order to do this, ask Jesus to cleanse your heart and keep it clean, for "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh."—The Christian.

What is it makes George Edmonds so cool and placid, and how does he do so much deep thinking? It is because he never allows himself to be harassed with colds. He takes Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he does.

Why Go West

When such grand opportunities await you in West Virginia, Maryland and the famous Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, a section possessing all the requisites for health, comfort and prosperity.

No region in the United States is attracting greater attention than those States, people from the North, West and extreme South are looking that way with the view of locating. Improved farm lands are to be obtained at from $1 to $6.00 per acre.

Rich mineral lands are cheap, excellent water powers, manufacturing sites, business locations, etc., are numerous. The schools and churches are excellent; the people are hospitable and extend a warm welcome to new comers. The climate is unequalled, no severe storms or cyclones, no contagious diseases.

If you wish to know more about these States you should write to M. V. Richards, Land and Emigrant Agent, B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md., stating what you want and he will give you full information free of charge.

The Old Doctors

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity, of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedies, for a while, thinking this sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alternative medicine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."—J. J. Armstrong, Weimar, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. I prescribe it, and it does the work every time."—E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"Ayer's medicines continue to be the standard remedies in spite of all competition."—T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.
